

In the last century, authors connected to readers via a bound book, a periodical, a video or audiotape — or by speaking to a limited audience. Getting ideas out to millions of people took time. Lots of time.

Today, top authors link to readers in mere minutes via e-Docs. We're BrownHerron, and we only publish e-Documents: quick, timely, cogent articles marketed exclusively on Amazon.com. e-Docs can be downloaded by readers in a short space of time and used immediately. We publish new e-Docs in a matter of days, bridging authors to hungry-to-know readers in 190 countries!

e-Docs are the 21st Century way to connect.

Now.

e-Docs Are e-Z To Read

- ◇ e-Docs: electronic documents — short articles purchased online and printed on anyone's printer looking just as good as the original via Adobe Acrobat®
- ◇ e-Docs from BrownHerron Publishing, called BH SmartDocs™, focus on how to lead and manage in the 21st Century; we publish vanguard thinking by authors who are accepted into our innovative Intellectual Alliance
- ◇ We sell e-Docs exclusively via www.amazon.com/BrownHerron

e-Docs Are Also e-Z To Publish

- ◇ Authors must first become a member of our e-publishing alliance; subject to meeting our editorial standards and paying a nominal per-doc processing fee, an author's e-Docs will be online ASAP — with royalties paid bi-annually

e-Docs: Concise ... Fast ... Economical ... Global

BH SmartDocs: Who Needs Them? Your Readers!

Major authors such as Jim Collins, Rosabeth Moss Kanter, and Seth Godin already have e-Docs on Amazon. Why e-Docs? Because they can help your readers to:

- ☑ Confront a current problem with spot-on, authoritative advice
- ☑ Get out of a jam by getting up-to-speed quickly on a topic in which you specialize
- ☑ Discover what you are thinking *now — long before your next book or article
- ☑ Report on a critical topic quoting you as a noted authority
- ☑ Provide fresh materials for training and educational programs
- ☑ Learn about your ideas even when, due to geography, it's hard to acquire your books
- ☑ Consider you as a speaker at their organization's next major conference
